

2019 FLORIDA WILDFLOWER SYMPOSIUM SCHEDULE

FRIDAY, APRIL 12

8 AM–4 PM	Straughn Center Lobby Registration
VARIES	Various locations Field trips
NOON–4PM	Room B Vendors, Exhibitors
1 PM	Room A Florida Springs and Aquifer Sustainability — Bob Knight
2 PM	Room A Why Florida Needs Growth Management More Than Ever — Paul Owens
3 PM	Room A Audubon Plants for Birds — Melissa Lammers
6–8:30PM	Friday Night Social at First Magnitude Brewing (pre-registration required)

SATURDAY, APRIL 13

8AM–3PM	Straughn Center Lobby Registration
8AM–3PM	Room B Silent Auction (Items must be paid for and picked up in person between 3:30 and 4 PM)
8AM–4PM	Room B Vendors, Exhibitors
8AM–4PM	Pavilion Native Plant Sale
8:30 AM	Room C General assembly, followed by keynote presentation “Florida Plant Diversity in a Changing Climate” by Drs. Pam and Doug Soltis

	Room A	Room C	Pavilion
10 AM	Trials and Tribulations of a Pine Savanna Restorationist: A 30-Year Retrospective Dr. Francis E. “Jack” Putz	How to Enhance Your Yard and Attract Wildlife with Florida Native Plants Renee Stambaugh	Create a Pollinator Pot Marc Godts
11 AM	Native Plants for Rain Gardens Arnold Rutkis	20 Easy-to-Grow Wildflowers Nancy Bissett	Wildflower Propagation Workshop Claudia Larsen (pre-registration required)
12–1 PM	Pavilion Boxed lunch served (pre-registration required) Room B Student Poster Presentations
1 PM	Florida’s Native Bees: Biology, Identification and Conservation Dr. Rachel Mallinger	How Roots Work Dr. Craig Huegel
2 PM	Florida’s Roadside Wildflowers Jon Heller	Edible Natives for Your Garden Stacey Matrazzo	Wildflower Propagation Workshop Claudia Larsen (pre-registration required)
3 PM	Underutilized Native Wildflowers with Ornamental Potential Dr. Sandra Wilson	The Changing Landscapes of Butterfly and Pollinator Conservation: Challenges and Opportunities Dr. Jaret Daniels	