

Kathleen Burks Obituary, Kathleen Allison Craddock, 59, a botanist and project coordinator for Florida Natural Areas Inventory, died Thursday, June 8, at her home. A memorial Search by Name Burks / Kathleen Burks Kathleen Burks Share Follow service will be 11 a.m. Wednesday, June 14, 2006, in Culley's MeadowWood Riggins Road Chapel, 1737 Riggins Road. Kathy has worked for many years as a botanist in the care and preservation of our Florida environment. She was an inspiration to the young and a leader amongst the most experienced of her peers. Kathy also left a valuable mark in her earlier work as a journalist writer and an editor. She is survived by her husband of 30 years, Joe; her mother, Lucille Craddock of Brandon; her sister and brother-in-law, Karen and Michael Gilliard of Tallahassee; her sister and brother-in-law, Karyl and Bill Liles of Brandon; her sister, Kaye Craddock of Lumberton, N.J. and her brother, Dr. J.E. Craddock of Tampa. Other survivors include her nieces and nephews, Erin, Michael, Allison, Cody, Alex, Lana and many friends and colleagues. She was preceded in death by her father, Bert F.J. Craddock. Memorial contributions may be made to the Robert K. Godfrey Endowment Fund, Fund # 0303, FSU Foundation, 2010 Levy Avenue, Bldg. B. Suite 300, P.O. Box 3062739, Tallahassee, FL 32306. Curley's MeadowWood Funeral HomeTallahassee, Fla.

